Mission Statement:

“Lifting, healing and restoring the woman to fulfil her maximum potential”.

Theme:

‘Raising Daughters to walk as Conquerors’.

Dear Daughters, divine greetings in the Might Name of Jesus!

As a team we are so excited about what our Lord is saying concerning Talitha Cumi’s Empowerment Weekend!

2024 is certainly the season for women to understand that God has qualified us to unlock gates and open doors.

Scripture is flooded with stories of women who were chosen and empowered by God to breakthrough into territories deemed impossible or even unattainable.

Many of these women, were selected and thrust into the forefront from very humble beginnings. Some of these women’s background narratives were that of slaves, such as Esther and a young servant girl captured by Naaman, a Syrian general with leprosy. Some of these ladies, such as Rahab and Mary Magdeline, had a history so shameful, it had the capacity to render them powerless.

In Acts 12:12-13, we read about a young servant girl by the name of Rhoda who appeared to be in a very similar situation. In this story, Rhoda was with a group of people praying for the Apostle Peter, who King Herod had placed in prison. As the Church prayed, an angel came and touched Peter, immediately, his chains fell off. Peter then followed the angel past the first and second ‘watchman of the door’. Eventually they came to the ‘iron gate’, and these swung open of its own accord. Finally, Peter came to the house of Mary and began to knock at the door of the gate. As Peter knocked, Rhoda came to see who it was, though she recognised Peter’s voice, she did not open the gate... but ran in and told the others.

Ladies... Despite where you may be coming from and whatever situation you may find yourself in, The Lord wants you to know that you are qualified to unlock that door. No more should you doubt or question God’s calling on your life. Your dubious past, your sordid testimony, your lack of social etiquette, does not disqualify you. On the contrary, the Lord tends to use the foolish, weak, and despise things to confound the wise, (1 Cor. 1:27-31).

Perhaps, you were always led to feel inadequate, insufficient, uneducated, inexperienced, lacking in social etiquette, verbal skills, or perhaps you may not look the type. Remember, Jesus never went searching for those who were qualified, but He will always qualify those He call.

Today, let us declare, ‘I Am Qualified To Unlock Gates & Open Doors’. Amen.
